TAB 3 - METHODOLOGY AND APPROACH

Galls has a fully staffed Inventory Management Department ("IM") that is responsible for purchasing and managing our inventory. On average Galls holds approximately $100M in on-hand inventory. The IM department utilizes an integrated inventory management forecasting system which is fully automated. The system uses complex algorithms to compute current and future needs on finished goods inventory. Galls' IM Team reviews electronic data provided by the system and then adds human logic as well as customer input. Purchase Orders are then released for finished goods to our vendors. This process considers constraints such as lead time, process time, cycle time, instability in order patterns, and historical demand. For many of our large programs we have negotiated with vendors to hold safety stock levels which allow us to react quicker on replenishment needs.

Galls provides multi-point inspections to every item we intake, alter, sell, and deliver. At each of these steps, a quality check is performed, so we can ensure that only the highest quality goods enter or leave our facilities. In the event of an issue, Galls documents every step along the way to find where it occurred and ensure it does not happen again. Galls retains stock of many items for quick turnaround in the rare event of a quality concern.

Galls adopts a strategic and comprehensive methodology, specifically designed to seamlessly provide clothing and equipment outlined in Exhibit A CFR and Exhibit B CPD Uniform Pricing Sheet. Our approach, known as the Galls Onboarding Process, ensures a systematic and customized implementation for all new accounts, including Clearwater Fire and Rescue (CFR) and Clearwater Police Department (CPD). A step-by-step outline of the process can be found below:

1. Account Setup and Point of Contacts:

- Our dedicated team initiates the process by establishing unique accounts with accurate point-of-contacts.
- Understanding the best practices of each department regarding invoicing and billing is a priority.

2. Uniform Program Customization:

- The identified items from the bid are incorporated into a tailored uniform program within our system.
- Specific customizations are set up, and samples or customization sew-outs are produced during this phase.

3. Stakeholder Engagement:

- Concurrently, our Regional Account Representative collaborates with stakeholders to comprehend the department's preferred ordering methods, fitting procedures, and logistics.
- Understanding the department's business preferences is crucial for the successful implementation of the uniform program.

4. Inventory Planning and Pre-Planning:

- Upon approval of samples and a clear understanding of the department's business practices, we commence pre-planning inventory at regional store locations and our main 750K sqft warehouse in Lexington, KY.
- Size runs are dispatched if necessary, ensuring readiness to meet delivery requirements without stockouts.

5. Online Ordering Portal Setup:

- Simultaneously, we offer the option to set up an online ordering portal tailored to the specific needs of the department.

- Benefits of the online platform include real-time order tracking, items specific to the department's uniform program, allotment tracking, and 24/7 access to Galls offerings.

6. Product Delivery and Implementation:

- With products stocked in inventory, accounts set up, and a clear plan for communication with end-users, Galls initiates the seamless provision of duty uniforms and associated equipment for both Clearwater Fire and Rescue and Clearwater Police Department.

This proven methodology reflects our commitment to precision, customer-centricity, and efficient implementation. By tailoring our approach to each department's unique requirements, we ensure a seamless and successful partnership with Clearwater Fire and Rescue and Clearwater Police Department. Please see attached Exhibits C and D for our eQuip software Specifications and User Guide respectively

Thank you for considering Galls for your uniform and equipment needs. We look forward to the opportunity to demonstrate our commitment and capabilities.

GALLS ONLINE OPTION

Galls has an optional proprietary eQuip software which can be customized and tailored to Clearwater's unique needs. Each user is able to have a unique password secured login that is tied directly to our contract, and can access the website 24/7 through a computer or mobile device, and each user's access can be fine tuned from view only to full access to contract items. Contract items can be anything from stock items to fully custom item kits. This means that only users approved by Clearwater can access the website, and each user will only be able to see the items they are approved for, with full descriptions and photos, at the contract prices. Galls can provide training for Administrative staff, individual employees, and will also provide self service training materials if needed. Administrative staff will also have the ability to add or delete items as the needs of Clearwater change, and with Galls inventory and selection being the largest in the inventory, you'll have the ability to pivot as needed and stay up to date on all the latest equipment. eQuip is designed to be user friendly and familiar, so if you have ordered items from an online retailer before, you will find eQuip to be simple and efficient to use!

When placing an order, an employee will see their approved items, which means that each user will have items that are a fit for their location and its regulations and requirements. Items can be pre-approved by Clearwater on an individual employee level, or set to require a secondary approval if needed. Once an order is placed, a user can come back to the website to track their order's progress at any time, and if they provide an email or phone number they will even be sent notifications at every step of the order process from Order Received to Delivered or Ready for Pickup. Because of Galls first class logistics and inventory system, once a user places an approved order, it immediately starts processing, so there is no delay from order placement to the beginning of order fulfillment.

GALLS ACCOUNTING AND REPORTING OPTIONS

Galls has a dedicated Accounting team specifically to ensure billing is accurate, timely, and tailored to the needs of our customers. With many of our customers being in the public sector, our billing is often open for public review, so it has to be correct and efficient. If Galls is awarded, Clearwater will have their own dedicated Accounting team member assigned to ensure that there is a point of contact available to discuss billing at any time.

Current and historical invoices are available to view online to approved Clearwater Administrators. Invoices can be directed to individual branches or a centralized account email address. Each shipment will have a physical invoice with it, and we can provide electronic invoices in common formats such as PDF. In the unlikely event of a discrepancy, Clearwater can contact their designated Galls representative, and any funds can be credited to the account or refunded. All invoices, documents, and records will be retained for the duration of the contract, or until such a time as Clearwater requires their destruction.

Through eQuip, Clearwater will have customizable detailed reports at their fingertips 24 hours per day, 365 days per year. This makes tracking KPI easier, and allows up to the minute tracking of expenses. Any user identified as an Administrator can request reports, and each Administrator's access can be limited to their specific area. Available reports include:

- Allotment Report
- Allowance Report
- Order History Sales Report
- Itemized Sales Report
- Allotment Activity Report
- Unit Allotment Activity Report
- Backorder Report
- Dropship Report
- Awaiting Pickup Report
- Unclaimed Merchandise Report
- Top Vendors Report
- Fill Rate Report

Within these offerings, specific parameters and filters can be set, such as date range, order status, location, department, and individual reports. This ensures that Adminsitrators only receive the information they need, in the format they need it.

In addition to the reports available to Clearwater at any time, Galls will also be ready to set up quarterly or yearly reviews where we can discuss the current status of the uniform program. At these meetings, we can discuss what aspects of the program are working, which could use improvement, and any specific areas where efficiency can be improved. This is in addition to the dedicated staff available to Clearwater who can help tweak the program to suit daily needs.

Part I Taxpayer Identification Number (TIN)

Enter your TIN in the appropriate box. The TIN provided must match the name given on line 1 to avoid backup withholding. For individuals, this is generally your social security number (SSN). However, for a resident alien, sole proprietor, or disregarded entity, see the instructions for Part I, later. For other entities, it is your employer identification number (EIN). If you do not have a number, see How to get a TIN, later.

Note: If the account is in more than one name, see the instructions for line 1. Also see What Name and Number To Give the Requester for guidelines on whose number to enter.

Part II Certification

Under penalties of perjury, I certify that:

- The number shown on this form is my correct taxpayer identification number (or I am waiting for a number to be issued to me); and
- I am not subject to backup withholding because: (a) I am exempt from backup withholding, or (b) I have not been notified by the Internal Revenue Service (IRS) that I am subject to backup withholding as a result of a failure to report all interest or dividends, or (c) the IRS has notified me that I am no longer subject to backup withholding; and
- I am a U.S. citizen or other U.S. person (defined below); and
- The FATCA code(s) entered on this form (if any) indicating that I am exempt from FATCA reporting is correct.

Certification instructions. You must cross out item 2 above if you have been notified by the IRS that you are currently subject to backup withholding because you have failed to report all interest and dividends on your tax return. For real estate transactions, item 2 does not apply. For mortgage interest paid, acquisition or abandonment of secured property, cancellation of debt, contributions to an individual retirement arrangement (IRA), and generally, payments other than interest and dividends, you are not required to sign the certification, but you must provide your correct TIN. See the instructions for Part II, later.

Purpose of Form

An individual or entity (Form W-9 requester) who is required to file an information return with the IRS must obtain your correct taxpayer identification number (TIN) which may be your social security number (SSN), individual taxpayer identification number (ITIN), adoption taxpayer identification number (ATIN), or employer identification number (EIN), to report on an information return the amount paid to you, or other amount reportable on an information return. Examples of information returns include, but are not limited to, the following.

- Form 1099-INT (interest earned or paid)

- Form 1099-DIV (dividends, including those from stocks or mutual funds)
- Form 1099-MISC (various types of income, prizes, awards, or gross proceeds)
- Form 1099-B (stock or mutual fund sales and certain other transactions by brokers)
- Form 1099-S (proceeds from real estate transactions)
- Form 1099-K (merchant card and third party network transactions)
- Form 1098 (home mortgage interest), 1098-E (student loan interest), 1098-T (tuition)
- Form 1099-C (canceled debt)
- Form 1099-A (acquisition or abandonment of secured property)

Use Form W-9 only if you are a U.S. person (including a resident alien), to provide your correct TIN.

If you do not return Form W-9 to the requester with a TIN, you might be subject to backup withholding. See What is backup withholding, later.
