Clearwater is a gem that deserves the flair and brand new enthusiasm of a multicultural and world travelled entrepreneur. I see an immense untapped potential that I hope to help unleash.

What personal qualifications can you bring to this board or committee?

Business Administration in internal commerce, successful real estate investor and sales representative, international connections and knowledge of international commerce. Being french, may I say flair... a little je ne sais quoi... to an untapped resource of immense beauty, yet preserving and protecting the natural beauty of the environment. Accommodating a community in need of a community... A soul tribe in the heart of natural beauty, satisfying every stratas of the echelon of this community. Creating jobs, searching and offering opportunities to external investors. Having lived 20 years in Miami, and trained by Berkshire Hathaway for 2 years makes me the perfect candidate to bring business to this little discovered area. I have a vision of a yearly art show such as wynwood coming over to Clearwater, generating a lot of income... Among other things!
