Building Community Through the Power of Music

Cultural powerhouse for more than 56 years

- Largest professional orchestra in Florida
- Largest performing arts organization in Tampa Bay
- Internationally acclaimed Music Director Michael Francis
- Rising star Resident Conductor Chelsea Gallo
- 70 full-time musicians and conductors

A photograph of Sting and The Florida Orchestra performing on stage. Sting is in the foreground, seated and singing into a microphone with his right arm raised. Behind him, a conductor is visible, also with his arm raised. The background shows other orchestra members and stage equipment. The lighting is dramatic, with warm tones on the performers and cooler tones in the background.
