The CTP Program seeks to stimulate and enhance the existing capabilities of CTPs to increase local involvement in, and ownership of, the development and maintenance of flood risk data and products, such as the Flood Insurance Rate Maps (FIRMs) and other risk related products, as well as other support to advance the goals and objectives of the NFIP. 		Emergency Solutions Grant (ESG)	HUD through Florida Department of Children & Families, Office on Homelessness	Local units of government in Florida or private non-profit organizations	The Emergency Solutions Grant (ESG) Program is a federally funded program awarded to the State of Florida through the Department of Housing and Urban Development (HUD). The State of Florida is required to distribute the grant for projects operated by local government agencies or private non-profit organizations. The ESG program is designed as the first step in a continuum of assistance that addresses homelessness and enables the homeless population to move steadily toward independent living. The Continuum of Care (CoC) model is based on the understanding that homelessness is not caused simply by a lack of shelter, but is caused by a variety of underlying human and social conditions. HUD believes the best approach for alleviating homelessness is to establish a community-based process that provides a comprehensive response to the diverse needs of homeless persons. The fundamental components of a CoC system are: 1) Outreach and assessment to identify a homeless person's needs; 2) Immediate (emergency) shelter as a safe, decent alternative to the streets; 3) Transitional housing with appropriate supportive services to help people achieve independent living; and 4) Permanent housing or permanent supportive housing for the disabled homeless. The objective of the ESG Program is to fund activities in the following planning areas of (1) Street Outreach (2) Homeless Prevention and Re-Housing; and (3) Shelter Facilities. Applicants may only submit one (1) application to complete activities in one (1) planning area.	$4,605,599 in 2014	Emergency Shelter = $76,598; Street Outreach = $47,025; Prevention and Re-housing = $76,598. 		Emergency Solutions Grant (ESG)	HUD through Florida Department of Children & Families, Office on Homelessness	Local units of government in Florida or private non-profit organizations	The Emergency Solutions Grant (ESG) Program is a federally funded program awarded to the State of Florida through the Department of Housing and Urban Development (HUD). The State of Florida is required to distribute the grant for projects operated by local government agencies or private non-profit organizations. The ESG program is designed as the first step in a continuum of assistance that addresses homelessness and enables the homeless population to move steadily toward independent living. The Continuum of Care (CoC) model is based on the understanding that homelessness is not caused simply by a lack of shelter, but is caused by a variety of underlying human and social conditions. HUD believes the best approach for alleviating homelessness is to establish a community-based process that provides a comprehensive response to the diverse needs of homeless persons. The fundamental components of a CoC system are: 1) Outreach and assessment to identify a homeless person's needs; 2) Immediate (emergency) shelter as a safe, decent alternative to the streets; 3) Transitional housing with appropriate supportive services to help people achieve independent living; and 4) Permanent housing or permanent supportive housing for the disabled homeless. The objective of the ESG Program is to fund activities in the following planning areas of (1) Street Outreach (2) Homeless Prevention and Re-Housing; and (3) Shelter Facilities.
