4.3 Informal hearing for Jonathan Walser for job-connected disability pension

Member Hamilton moved to accept into evidence the entire file, inclusive of the application, personnel file, interrogatories, medical records, and the IME (Independent Medical Exam). The motion was duly seconded and carried unanimously.

Police Officer Jonathan Walser said it was his great honor to serve Clearwater. He said he did all he could to stay but always would walk with a limp. He expressed gratitude to the community and City staff who were a great family.

Human Resources Director Joe Roseto reviewed requirements of the Code for a job-connected disability pension. None of the listed exclusions applied.

It was stated the IME doctor had determined Officer Walser was totally and permanently disabled from performing hazardous duties, the disability was service-connected and not treatable, and there was no expectation that Officer Walser would return to work.

Discussion ensued with comments that the Committee appreciated Officer Walser's words and service, regretted he had to retire in spite of his best intentions to stay, that the FOP (Fraternal Order of Police) would continue to receive his support, and he would continue to make Clearwater a great place.

Officer Walser complimented Police Chief Slaughter's efforts to help the less fortunate and underserved community in Clearwater, and regretted he could not participate in the Chief's efforts to build a better, safer community.

Member Jonson moved that Jonathan Walser met the requirements for a job-related disability pension as he was disabled by reason of a injury suffered or an illness contracted in the line of duty, such disability is likely to be continuous and permanent from a cause other than those listed as general disability exclusions, and he is unable, by reason of a medically determinable physical or mental impairment, to render useful and efficient service as a police officer or firefighter. The motion was duly seconded and carried unanimously.

5. Old Business Item: None.

6. Director's Report

Mr. Roseto said he had known Officer Walser throughout his career at the City and complimented Officer Walser's collegial manner when they sat at opposite ends of the bargaining table. Officer Walser's dedication to the City will be missed but he will continue to be an asset to the City, community, and Police Officers.

7. Board Members to be Heard

Members wished all a Happy New Year.

Members complimented Officer Walser's commitment to the City, thanked him for his service, and wished him well.
