Ms. Westmark's 25+ years of environmental consulting experience means she delivers profitable results with extensive client retention. Her successful management of 183 contamination assessments and remedial actions with 84 closures means she delivers profitable project management with a high degree of private/public sector client satisfaction. This cannot be done by one person alone. Ms. Westmark is the glue that holds the organization together: she uses her expertise at mentoring, team building, and concise communication of project priorities to create positive-thinking, highly responsive technical staff to do all levels of technical work. This allows her to stay focused on client contract/profitability management and delivery of consistently high quality results to clients (see Professional Experience). Ms. Westmark's Principal-level collaboration with a nationwide team at her employer of 31 years to establish standard operating procedures for conducting environmental assessments and design of report templates (assessments, remediation, operations & maintenance) means she knows how to streamline operations, reduce costs, and produce high quality results with demonstrable client satisfaction. Ms. Westmark created a "special projects" profit center dedicated to servicing state and municipal environmental contracts for a ten year period with over $20M in fees. She proves her ability to secure contracts and keep clients satisfied through the client references she has provided.
