Questionnaire

Question 1. What is your understanding of the duties and responsibilities of the Board(s)?

Answer 1. *

The Charter Review Committee is a volunteer group of citizens which holds a series of meetings discussing the city's charter, which is basically the constitution-like rules that govern the city. In the past, committee findings included eliminating or increasing term limits, increasing the time between charter reviews; electing council members by district instead of at-large, giving council members stipends in addition to salaries; and publishing the Notice of Availability for the city audit annually.

Question 2. Have you ever observed a board meeting either in person or on C-View, the City's TV station?

Answer 2. *

☒ Yes ☐ No

Question 3. What background, experience, or education qualifies you to serve on the Board(s)?

Answer 3. *

As an attorney I draft documents daily, research issues to understand their implications, interview experts, and discuss alternatives with clients and co-counsel. Constitutional law (the structure of government) was one of my favorite subjects in law school, and my undergraduate degree was in political science. As senior partner of my law firm, I have the ability to create the time to be an active member of the Committee. I attended all the recent Charter Task Force meetings and am familiar with the document.

Question 4. Why do you want to serve on the Board(s)?

Answer 4. *

The Charter Review Committee is composed of volunteers, and I believe I have the background and interest to be an active and valuable member of the committee. In the latter part of my legal career, I am not looking for something to add to my resume, and I am not a candidate for public office, just someone offering my time and expertise as a Clearwater resident in this opportunity to be of service to my community.
