Center Point Large Print

1. We are buying Center Point Large print books. The books provide a larger type format for the public who have vision impairments. The books are popular as well as with senior citizens or individuals who may prefer to read the large type over smaller print materials.
2. Center Point large print books is unique in that they offer over 360 exclusive large print titles, which include many of the best-selling authors.
3. Center Point is sole source for these titles as they have garnished exclusive rights with the publishers.
4. We also receive Large Print books from Cengage, but they do not carry the specific best-selling titles that Center Point offers as they are exclusive to Center Point.
5. The benefit to the public is that we can provide them the best-selling, large print titles which are in high demand. Center Point provides quality large print materials for our public.
